D057780 Medina et al. v. Superior Court of San Diego County/O'Day Consultants, Inc.

For good cause shown, the Superior Court of San Diego County is ordered to vacate its July 9, 2010, order sustaining the general demurrer and enter an order overruling the demurrer on or before August 24, 2010. In the alternative, should the superior court fail to do so, the court is ordered to show cause why the relief should not be granted.

Should the superior court fail to grant the relief, the response on file will be deemed the response to the alternative writ. Petitioner may file a reply on or before September 10, 2010. Oral argument will be deemed waived unless requested on or before September 17, 2010. If a party requests oral argument, the request should be in letter form with proof of service on the other parties. The letter should also identify the focus of the party's argument and the amount of time requested, not to exceed 15 minutes.

Petitioner is directed to advise this court of the superior court's response to this order on or before August 27, 2010.
